

EVERY JOB MATTERS

DEFENDING JOBS ON LONDON UNDERGROUND

Mayor's State of London debate Give him your view on Tube cuts!

Your chance to let the Mayor know what you think about

- 953 jobs being axed
- every ticket office closing by 2015
- the total restructure of station staffing
- the threat of further cuts to come

“We will halt ticket office closures”

Boris Johnson's 2008 Mayoral election pledge

The Mayor of London is holding his annual 'State of London Debate' on 25 June at the O2.

This is a golden opportunity for RMT members and the public to hold the Mayor to his election promise to “keep every ticket office open”, to stop the job losses on the Tube and to defend London's Underground from the Tories' austerity attacks on our transport system.

Let's get down there and tell him what we think!

Entry is free but you must register for a ticket.

To get tickets to the event go to the website www.london.gov.uk/get-involved/events/state-of-london-debate-june-2014

Or call 020 7983 4762 to get tickets posted to you.

Even if you are unable to attend, please register and email your tickets to London Transport Regional Secretary, Eamonn Lynch at eamonnlynchrmt@outlook.com The union will lobby and demonstrate from 18:00 hours at the Indigo O2 from 18:00 hours. Please do your utmost to attend and tell the Mayor “LISTEN TO LONDON!”

www.rmt.org.uk/everyjobmatters

