

OVERTIME BAN

The RMT has instructed all of its members not to do overtime during this dispute.

The ballot for action short of a strike, which is exactly what this is, came back unanimous. If LU don't have enough members of staff to open a station safely, then the station must close. Perhaps they should employ enough staff so this doesn't happen!

One day after our recent strike action, two stations couldn't open up in the morning because of staff shortage!

We are all losing pay by going on strike but if the 'Action short of a strike' is successful, strong and unified, further strike action may not be needed.

Every grade needs to stick together in this dispute. There are many grades who cannot make up money lost doing overtime, yet they stand strong and come out because they know what the outcome will be if they stand by and do nothing. All projects at weekends are carried out on overtime by engineering grades. These projects simply cannot go ahead if there are no workers. Those workers are showing their support. We need to do the same.

Remember that our strength & unity across all grades during last years strikes got us; a salary guarantee, being mapped into grades without assessment, 30 minute maximum location movement and medically restricted staff being given jobs.

The latest talks have shown that LU want to buy your frameworks & agreements from you for a mere £500. If management's attempts to rip up our current agreements are successful, your terms & conditions will be severely eroded. Imagine, no sick pay, less holidays, fixed term contracts are already being implemented. The next step for an employer is Zero hours contracts! So no more being spare; you will just be told you are not needed, so go home and don't expect to be paid!

So don't just worry about next months pay packet. Think of the bigger picture. Most people stay with LU because of the terms & conditions. Think about your employment now and how you want it to stay. If you want to keep what you currently have - stand up to this absolute assault on our strongly fought for terms!

SAY NO TO O/T!
