

1st REPARATION DEMO

THURSDAY: 22nd August 2013

Nearest tube Westminster

1830 – 1930hrs: 10 Downing Street

British Prime Minister David Cameron and his ancestors have profited In 1833 when the House of Commons voted that those who had enslaved African people should be paid £20 million (£20 Billion at today) in order for Britain to claim it had ended its shameful past. We say criminals should not be allowed to keep the loot. If you agree, you know what to do.

JOIN US. BRING YOUR DRUMS, WHISTLES ALL YOUR NOISE MAKERS

FREE ANNUAL REPARATION CONFERENCE: LUNCH PROVIDED

Conference organised by Trade Unions RMT, UCU, Community Groups GACuk, BWJ-e, PASC

FRIDAY: 23rd August 2013

1100 – 2100hrs Bernie Grant Centre

TOTTENHAM LONDON N15 4RX: Nearest Tube Seven Sisters

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Arnold Tjihuiko of Namibia

FOR MORE INFORMATION

CONTACT Glenroy watson 07956 133 450
WatsonRMT0543@aol.com

South West Africa, as Namibia was once known, was the testing ground for Nazi Germany first Concentration camp where millions were murdered. We say ...

REPARATION NOW!