Dear Bob

Fit for the Future – Stations - Voluntary Severance

Thank you for your letter of 16 December 2013.

I can confirm that, as of this date, London Underground has not formally invited any affected employees to express an interest in voluntary severance. Whilst there has been much interest, with people emailing us requesting quotes etc, they have been sent a holding email explaining that the window is not open yet. This is also quite clear on the LU intranet.

In the JWP we have also been discussing timings for VS, and, as you know, following consultation with the trades unions, deferred our original plan to commence this process earlier in December.

Therefore, I can confirm that it is currently not possible for affected employees to formally express an interest in or apply for Voluntary Severance.

I will advise you as soon as there is a change to this position.

Yours sincerely

Gerry Duffy
Director of Employee Relations
