Finsbury Park RMT branch is committed to continue the education of our members to the wider world and its impact on our daily lives, with a series of Monthly speakers.

Paddy Hill served sixteen years for a crime he not only did not commit, but a crime the state knew he did not and could not have committed.

‘They couldn’t spell Justice never mind dispense it’

Come and hear from someone who has not walked away, and has not been broken. Come and hear someone who is fighting back, and helping others to fight back. As we see how the state and state machinery is being used more and more to prevent workers taking democratically voted for industrial action as in the BA strike, we can see there are lessons to learn.
