

Christmas Industrial Action looms for Willesden Green Group

Station Supervisor—Colleen Johnston Loses Appeal

Station Supervisor and RMT Activist Colleen Johnston had her appeal hearing on the 14th December.

The company decided to uphold their decision and Colleen remains dismissed.

The company is using the recession to get rid of members of staff when and how they want, the Willesden Green Staff have spoken and continue their long running dispute.

Members have requested to take industrial Action around Christmas, dates will be announced to management with the minimum 7 days notice required (we're not going to put it here and ruin the surprise, are we?). A special NeasdenFlyer will be produced in due course. Support Your Colleagues. See your Local Rep for info.
