

LONDON TRANSPORT REGION LGBT

FREE night out at the cinema to watch

MILK

Evening of Thursday 29th January

It's the story of Harvey Milk, a middle-aged New Yorker who after moving to San Francisco became a Gay Rights activist and city politician. On his third attempt he was elected to San Francisco's Board of Supervisors in 1977, making him the first openly gay man to be elected to public office in the USA. A year later he was shot dead.

Come to the Regional Council – between 4.30pm and 7pm at the Somers Town Community Centre on Ossulston Street, between Euston and Kings' Cross/St.Pancras, and we will go together after the meeting.

Contact Brian Haughian (LTR LGBT Officer) on 07949 163 470

The film starts at 20:40 at 'Screen on Baker Street', 96 – 98 Baker Street,
London W1U 6TW.

Correspondence has gone to Branch Secretaries requesting that all members attending are reimbursed through their branch.